

The Episcopal Diocese of Bethlehem

March 26, 2020

To Whom It May Concern:

Since the Department of Revenue offices are closed in response to the recent COVID-19 situation, there will be a delay in receiving our Sales Tax Exemption renewals. I have been in contact with them, as I am aware that the utility companies, as potentially others, are in need of the renewal prior to the end of the month in order to maintain your exemption status. In response to my request, they have provided the enclosed letter which extends our church's exemption until September 30th.

As all churches are a part of the Diocese of Bethlehem, the diocesan office is responsible for completing the renewal. As such, I have included a list of all of the parishes that are referenced as subsidiary churches in the letter from the state.

Should you have any questions, I can be reached by email: paula@diobeth.org or phone: 610- 691-5655 x222.

Blessings,

Our records indicate that your organization's sales tax exemption certificate is due to expire on March 31, 2020.

Due to delays in processing of sales tax exemptions as a result of COVID-19, the department is extending the exempt status of this organization and its subsidiary churches until September 30, 2020. The extension is intended to assist your institution and subsidiary churches in continuing daily operations without interruption of exempt status. Please forward this extension to your subsidiary churches.

You may use this correspondence along with an Exemption Certificate (REV-1220) as your authority to make tax free purchases.

Please know the department is continuing to work on issuing your exemption certificates as quickly as possible.
